Domestic Violence Response Training

DV-alert

Domestic and family violence Response Training (DV-alert) is a free national training program designed for health, allied health and community frontline workers. By the end of your training, you will confidently:

Recognise

signs of domestic and family violence

Respond

with appropriate care

Refer

women and their children subjected to or at risk of domestic and family violence to appropriate support services

DV-alert is available in various nationally recognised training streams:

- General Workshop
- Indigenous Workshop
- Multicultural Workshop
- Settlement Services Workshop
- Tailored Workshop
- Working with Women with Disabilities Workshop, and
- e-Learning Course

As a nationally recognised training program, DV-alert workshops and E-learning streams are mapped out against the unit of competency CHCDFV001: Recognise and Respond Appropriately to Domestic and Family Violence. Participants who successfully complete the training and assessment will receive a statement of attainment. Find out more about the benefits at dvalert.org.au
